

PHOTOS: HTCS

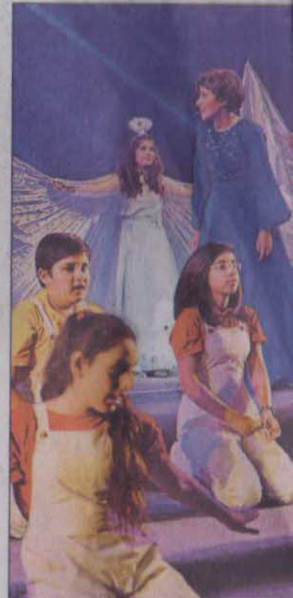

(Above) Pharaoh's story and (below) Joseph's brothers

Students give a choice of...

Any Dream Will Do

A narrative in action

A MUSICAL EVENING

Bringing alive biblical teachings on stage, Lotus Valley International School, Noida celebrated its 13th annual day on November 12. Students performed the famous Broadway musical called Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat.

Principal, Dr Ruchi Seth, said, "We chose this musical as our annual day theme as we wanted to provide a new learning experience to our students. Besides, the story of Joseph focuses on the universal values of familial love, compassion and forgiveness." The chief guest was vice admiral Shekhar Sinha (Retd) who, along with the principal, vice chairpersons, Sureena Uppal and Jaspreet Kaur, released

Fountainhead. The school's head boy, Satwik Shivoham and head girl, Bhavya Jha shared achievements of the students in various fields, and meritorious students were felicitated for their outstanding achievements. Best debater of the school, Anab Akhtar of Class XII, was awarded the Dr Shayama Chona Trophy. Teachers completing ten years of service were individually felicitated.

The musical, presented by more than 700 students of classes V-XI who were trained by George Pulinkala, theatre director and his team, showcased an amalgam of talent and creativity. The mellifluous voices of the sopranos and choir, synchronised dances were aimed at transporting the audience to the majestic world of Pharaohs. The chief guest congratulated the young Lotusians, and said, "Looking at the talent of the children and the education imparted at Lotus Valley, I am very sure that the future of our country is in safe hands." HTC

THE MUSICAL WAS PRESENTED BY MORE THAN 700 STUDENTS OF CLASSES V-XI

(l-r) Vice chairpersons, Sureena Uppal and Jaspreet Kaur