

Art at its creative, uninhibited best

HT-PACE KALEIDOSCOPE An estimated 1,000 students from Delhi-NCR schools thronged India Gate lawns for the event

HINDUSTAN TIMES, NEW DELHI
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 02, 2016

STUDENT EDITION

Ananya Biswas

NEW DELHI: Blazed by the blanket of fog that enveloped the India Gate lawns in the heart of the city, at least 1,000 students gave wings to their creativity in a wide range of colours in 'Kaleidoscope', the annual inter-school painting competition organised by HT-PACE, on Thursday morning.

The subjects for the senior category (Classes 7 to 9) were 'A smart city' or 'An innovative invention' and those for the juniors (Classes 4 to 6) were 'A magical garden' or 'A book jacket'.

In the senior group, Trishal Bhardwaj from Little Flowers International School, Kabir Nagar won the first prize, followed by Aksh Garg from Bal Bharati Public School, Rohini, and Srishti Daga from Bal Bharati Public School, Brij

Jasnoor Kaur from Delhi Public School, Vasant Vihar, topped the junior category, followed by Ananya Bakundi from Army Public School, Shankar Vihar as the first runner-up and Shruti from Bal Bharati Public School, Rohini, as the second runner-up. Ananya Gupta from Lotus Valley International School, Noida; Akshat Jain from Mount Abu Public School, Sector -5, Rohini, and Meher Mangat from The Sri Ram School, Moulari, were awarded consolation prizes.

A prefect of the art club of her school, Jasnoor, who depicted a magical garden that comprised a red sky, a talking Sun and flying humans, acknowledged the role played by her art teacher.

Artists Kanchan Chander and Nupur Kundu — the judges for the contest — had a tough time shortlisting the best entries. So

