NEW DELHI: As part of their annual language fest, Lotus Valley International School, Noida, celebrated 'Confluence,' a French cultural festival.

Children of Classes 6 and 7 presented a soulful rendition of "Vios sur ton chemin", urging the audience to lend a helping hand to the lost and forgotten children and lead them to a new future.

This was followed by another melodious number, "Le dernière danse" and a ballet performance which showcased French tradition and set the mood for the day. An inter-house general knowledge quiz for classes 6 to 10 created a lots of excitement among the audience.

Students of Class 10 demonstrated some French recipes and provided a glimpse of the French culture through them.

The occasion was graced by school vice principal Indu Yadav and incharge (Classes 7 and 8) Jyoti Gupta and incharge (classes 5 and 6) Neerja Rishi, who appreciated efforts of students and teachers for making the day a great success.
